To Breeders and Lovers of Good Shorthorns

---

The cattle to be found in the pages of this catalogue are not only a most excellent lot individually, but they are a well bred lot of cattle from one end to the other. Several of the herds consigning cattle to this sale have been winners at the Iowa State fair and at the various other fairs in southwest Iowa. In fact the outstanding steer calf last year at the Iowa state fair came from one of the herds represented in this sale. We simply mention this at this time to impress on those looking for well bred Scotch Shorthorns that they can reasonably expect to find in this sale offering just what they are looking for. The bulls are a most creditable lot, several of which are good enough to go to the head of good herds. The females are a richly bred lot through out, and a lot of outstanding young heifers are selling in this sale. It is just such an offering as we can recommend to the buying public. We also wish to impress on those who are thinking of buying Scotch Shorthorns that now is the time to buy. With the present prices of beef on the market we feel that the man that now buys a few good Shorthorns is laying the foundation for a successful future. In our opinion there never was a better time to buy a few well bred Scotch Shorthorns than right now. And I know that you will find some wonderfully good bargains in this breeders sale at Creston, Iowa, October 12.

Signed:

M. T. WHITE,
Representing Iowa Homestead.
